WELCOME

Our summer services are planned and conducted by members and friends of the congregation. We are very glad you have joined us this morning. Wearing a name tag gives all of us a chance to greet each other by name, and helps newcomers feel more at home. Blank nametags are available. If you have been coming for a while, plan to continue, and would like a permanent nametag, please sign up for one on the list in the vestibule.

Childcare is available downstairs for all but very small infants. Hearing assistance devices and large-print hymnals are available. Please ask an usher if you would like one.

Please join us for snacks and lemonade in the Parlor after the service.

MUSIC

We begin with two jazz standards sharing a title. The first was introduced by Frank Sinatra in the 1947 film It Happened in Brooklyn, while the second was the hit single from Cyndi Lauper's 1983 debut album She's So Unusual. Thomas Whythorne (1528-c. 1590) published this madrigal in 1571. And the interludes are the best-known songs of the tragically short-lived artists Sandy Denny (1947-1978) (of the Fairport Convention) and Otis Redding (1941-1967). The Stones song is from the 1974 album It's Only Rock and Roll; our own time permits us only a taste of Mick Taylor's epic guitar solo. Thanks for all the musical and production help in this service!

FLOWERS

This morning's flowers are arranged by Sally Lawton.
